

Temperance Column.

By the Ocala Temperance Reform Club.

Edited by J. A. Munden.

The Club meets every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Temperance Hall. The Public are invited.

DASH DOWN THE CUP.

Charles Lamb wrote:

The waters have gone over me, but out of the black depths could I be heard, I would cry out to all those who have set a foot on the perilous flood.

Could the youth to whom the flavor of the first wine is as delicious as the opening scenes of life, or the entering upon some newly discovered paradise, look into my desolation, and be made to understand what a dreary thing it is when he shall feel himself going down a precipice with open eyes and passive will—to see a godliness emptied out of him, and yet not be able to forget the time it was otherwise—to bear about the piteous spectacle of his own ruin; could he see my feverish eye, feverish with last night's drinking, and feverishly looking for tonight's repetition of the folly; could he but feel the body of death out of which I cry hourly with feeble outcry to be delivered, it were enough to make him dash the sparkling beverage to the earth, in all the pride of its mantling temptation.

The Independent Order of Good Templars now numbers about 500,000 adult members, and 200,000 in its juvenile department. It is thus by far the largest temperance organization in the world. From the day of its origin, in 1851, it has occupied an advanced position, standing for total abstinence and the entire prohibition of the liquor traffic.—Ex.

Dr. Richardson designates alcohol as "the devil in solution."

The Ocala Rifles will meet tonight to prepare for moving to their splendid new quarters in the armory now fully completed.

J. R. Biggs of Citrus county is in the city today.
